Who We Are
and why you should look for us

The National Scholarships & Fellowships Program provides advising and assistance to current Emory University students and recent grads who wish to apply for nationally competitive awards.

Some of the more familiar nationally competitive awards are the Rhodes, Fulbright, Marshall, Goldwater, Udall, Truman, and Gates Cambridge.

Nationally competitive awards provide varied opportunities for academically outstanding, engaged students to study and/or do research abroad after graduation, to pursue graduate degrees in prestigious UK universities, to live and work in Asia, to work as research associates for the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, and more.

Beinecke Scholarship • $34,000 for graduate study in the humanities, social sciences, or arts (apply January of junior year).

Bredow Scholarship • Emory award for students with significant leadership in the Jewish community and unmet need; partial tuition for one year (apply January of freshman, sophomore, or junior year).

Goldwater Scholarship • Provides up to $7,500 a year toward educational costs for each remaining undergraduate year for students in STEM fields (apply November of sophomore or junior year).

Humanity in Action Fellowship • Funds a 5-week European summer program in human rights (apply January of sophomore, junior, or senior year).

Sonny Carter • Emory award that provides partial tuition for senior year in Emory College (apply February of junior year).

Truman Scholarship • Provides up to $30,000 for graduate study for students committed to a career in public service (apply January of Junior year).

Udall Scholarship • Funds a portion of undergraduate education costs for students committed to a career related to the environment, or for Native American students in tribal public policy or health care (apply February of sophomore or junior year).

Additional Awards: Pickering, PPIA.

Open to International/Non-US Students

Megan Friddle, PhD • Director
Brandy Simula, PhD • Assistant Director
Phone: 404.727.6069
Email: oue.nationalawards@emory.edu

Office for Undergraduate Education • White Hall 300 • 301 Dowman Drive • Atlanta, GA 30322