National Scholarships & Fellowships Program

National scholarships and fellowships are prestigious awards that offer funding for undergraduate or graduate study, research, and/or professional experiences in the U.S. or abroad.

Post-Graduate Opportunities

CARNEGIE FELLOWSHIP • One-year professional experience at the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace for students interested in international affairs (apply December of senior year).

FULBRIGHT GRANT • One-year grant to study/research in any field or teach abroad; commitment to serving as cultural ambassador during award year (apply September of senior year or as an alum).

GATES CAMBRIDGE SCHOLARSHIP • Multi-year award for graduate study at the University of Cambridge in any field; commitment to “improving the lives of others” (apply October of senior year).

LUCE SCHOLARS PROGRAM • $30,000 fellowship for one-year professional placement in Asia in any field; for those with limited experience in Asia (apply September of senior year or up to age 29).

MARSHALL SCHOLARSHIP • Two-year award to pursue graduate study in the UK in any field; leadership and 3.8+ GPA needed (apply August of senior year or up to 3 years post-grad).

RHODES SCHOLARSHIP • Two- or three-year award to study at the University of Oxford in any program/field; public leadership and 3.8+ GPA needed (apply August of senior year or up to age 23).

 Open to international students

Undergraduate Opportunities

GOLDWATER SCHOLARSHIP • Provides up to $7,500 a year toward educational costs for each remaining undergraduate year for students in STEM fields (apply December of sophomore or junior year).

HUMANITY IN ACTION FELLOWSHIP • Funds a 5-week European summer program or 4-week Atlanta-based program in human rights (apply January of sophomore, junior, or senior year).

TRUMAN SCHOLARSHIP • Provides up to $30,000 for graduate study for students committed to a career in public service (apply January of Junior year).

UDALL SCHOLARSHIP • Funds a portion of undergraduate education costs for students committed to a career related to the environment, or for Native American students in tribal public policy or health care (apply February of sophomore or junior year).

Who Wins
These awards are extremely competitive, yet every year Emory students are successful. Strong academic credentials and substantial leadership and service are essential to winning these awards.

Who We Are
The National Scholarships & Fellowships Program provides advising and assistance to current Emory University students and recent grads who wish to apply for nationally competitive awards.

For More Information, contact:
National Scholarships & Fellowships Program
Dr. Megan Friddle, Director
White Hall 100C
oue.nationalawards@emory.edu
http://nationalawards.college.emory.edu

How to apply:
Many of these awards require that students be nominated or endorsed by their university. Some awards allow students to apply directly to the award foundation or institution.
Detailed information about each award and the application process can be found on the NS&FP website.