TIPS FOR SUCCESSFUL
ONLINE LEARNING

AUGUST 7, 2020
ONLINE LEARNING

• History of Online Learning at Emory College

• Online Learning (fall 2020) vs. Emergency Remote Learning (spring 2019)

• Summer 2020: Emory College Online Teaching Strategies (ECOTS) Training
  • Faculty clusters by department
  • Additional training for those teaching First Year Writing, labs, performance courses, etc.

• What makes online learning at Emory different?

• Why can’t you just add seats to online classes? Engagement!
TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

COMPUTER
Recommend: Windows 10 or macOS 10.14 or later

WEBCAM
Built-In is fine!

HEADPHONES AND MICROPHONES
Most earbuds are fine, or order an inexpensive over-the-ear pair

INTERNET ACCESS
Reliable High-Speed internet connection

GENERAL MOVE-IN PROCESS

• Cars will be screened for negative test results and helper health at the entries to campus

• Cars will pull up and have the option of having someone unload their things or they can do it on their own

• Student will check-in and get their key, ID Card, Helper Lanyard, and other first-year information

  • One helper per student will be allowed in building (student will receive lanyard to give to helpers)

  • Helpers can switch during the process, but there can only be one helper in the building at any given time.

  • Other helpers will be directed to the waiting area, where there will be shade and snacks.

TIPS FOR ONLINE LEARNING

• Online on campus
• Online off campus (ATL or Home)
• Common tips for Online Learning
  • Headphones- allows them privacy and no distractions, and freedom to focus
  • Virtual Backgrounds
  • Privacy
• All First Year students will have a module with additional information in their PACE course
• Be proactive- asking for help is normal and expected
SUPPORTING YOUR STUDENTS

• Classes, advising and meetings are meant to be between the students and faculty/staff
• FERPA – your student is the primary source
• Let your students take the lead
REGISTRATION IS A PROCESS

- We are pre-registering students in 5 credits
  - They will be able to drop or swap courses
  - FSEM and FWRT are offered fall and spring
  - Many intro courses are also offered EVERY semester (class size limits help maintain course integrity)
  - Search by class time or GER for more options
- No such thing as a perfect schedule
- LOAD UP the SHOPPING CART - 25-30 courses/multiple sections
- Monday-Tuesday is just the start
  Add/Drop/Swap allows changes
- Many courses offered in fall are also offered in the spring
REGISTRATION IS MONDAY AND TUESDAY

REMINDERS

• Webinar on Sunday, August 9 at Noon for all students

• Keep courses in the shopping cart for the Add/Drop/Swap Period

• Registration begins Monday at noon for all students and is open through Tuesday at 11:59pm

• Add/Drop/Swap will be open form August 17-26
