WHAT IS FERPA?

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) protects the privacy of student records by requiring prior written consent before disclosing personally identifiable information to a third party. It applies to colleges and universities that receive funding from the federal government.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

- Each student attending classes at Emory has these rights, regardless of age. Parents had these rights in high school.

- FERPA gives students the right to inspect their educational records. They have ownership of these rights as long as they live.

- Students may complete a FERPA Consent Form to release information to other individuals. More on this later!
WHAT WILL I HAVE ACCESS TO?
(NO CONSENT FORM REQUIRED)

BASIC INFORMATION
- Whether or not student is enrolled
- Address
- Telephone Number

ACADEMIC INFORMATION
- School/ Division and class/ year
- Dates of enrollment, including full-time/ part-time status
- Degrees earned and date
